You are welcome to contact us for further information.

Horizon Science 4U submitted

Science 4U will coordinate, support and establish eco-systems of science collaboration and Open Science Schooling in 10 different European countries, all of them co-driven by young people and enabled by 3 different types of community agents: higher science educations, private organisations and local or regional NGO's.

Kickin'-off

2016 was a good year for WWEU driven or co-driven applications with most of them granted.
Therefore we are now looking very much forward to kickin' off the new initiatives.
You can get an impression of the new projects here.
Curious, just ask ☺

Erasmus+ 2017 initiatives

WWEU is now planning our Erasmus+ 2017 initiatives, in particular:
Open Science Schooling
Managing Dementia
The Unteachables
EntreComp Youth
You can read a first description of the initiatives here.
Curious, just ask ☺

New WWEU papers

WWEU is continuously contributing to the European innovation in education debate. Recent contributions are:
Mission based learning
Towards a paradigm shift in adult education
The 10 commandments of the 21st century occidental gamelearner
Freud's allegory of learning
Awesome schooling
You can download the contributions here.
